Students who are accused of violations may have their cases handled in either of two ways:

- (1) Administratively by the Hall Director or Student Affairs staff; or
- (2) By the student court.

After hearing a case, a judgment of guilt or innocence is made and a penalty is assessed where appropriate. The penalties that may be assessed are loss of privilege, disciplinary warning, disciplinary probation, and suspension. In addition, these penalties may include dismissal from the residence hall or apartment. The student has the option to appeal to the Disciplinary Hearing Board or the University Council.

If a student fails to occupy the assigned room by the date specified without giving the Office of Housing prior notification of delayed arrival, the room may be reassigned to another student. Delayed arrival does not relieve the student of the responsibility for accepting available accommodation.

- (1) Soliciting is not permitted in the non-public areas of the residence halls. It may be permitted in the public areas by registered student organizations depending on space, circumstances and provisions of the Student Handbook.
- (2) Windows and Screens: Window screens must not be unfastened or removed. In addition, the following rules also apply.
  - (a) Food may not be stored between windows and screens or outside of the windows at anytime.
  - (b) Displays in windows which are deemed inappropriate by the hall head staff and not removed by the resident(s), will be removed by the staff and the resident(s) billed for this service.

- (c) Under no circumstances will the throwing of objects from any windows in the residence halls be tolerated. Such conduct poses a danger to the health and safety of other residents. Residents assigned to a room from which an object is thrown will be subject to administrative eviction from the university residence halls in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Housing Contract.
- (3) Business from Residents' Rooms: Residents are not permitted to carry on any organized business for remunerative purposes from their apartments or rooms, inscribe or affix any sign, object, advertisement, or notice on any part of the inside or outside of the building or premises, or use their room phone numbers for business purposes.

Resident Assistants are able to define these areas specifically for the hall, including but not limited to corridor of a living unit, resident's room, etc.
- (5) Guests: Residents may have overnight guests of the same sex only; it is the host's responsibility to arrange for sleeping facilities, including linens, permission from another roommate for use of his/her bed, etc. Unless extraordinary arrangements have been made with the Hall Director or Assistant Hall Director, no keys will be issued to guests, and no resident may have a guest in the hall when the resident will not be present to act as his/her host.
  - (a) Guests are discouraged during weekday nights and during the last week of each semester when final exams are being given. The maximum length of any visit is 3 days and 3 nights, with extensions granted only by the Hall Director or Assistant Hall Director.
  - (b) University officials can require guests to produce proof that they are legitimate guests. Guests must complete a Guest Registration Card available at the main desk of each hall. The information on this card may aid in contacting the guest and/or his/her designee should the need arise. The guest's copy of the card will also serve as an identification card during his/her stay on campus.
  - (c) All guests are governed by university and residence hall rules and regulations. For a violation of rules by an off-campus guest, the host is responsible for any damages caused by the guest.
  - (d) No individual will be permitted to sleep in the main or floor lounges of university residence halls. Night clerks and hall staff will ask such persons to leave the hall or to return to their assigned rooms. For obvious (audible) reasons, musical instruments may be played only in areas provided for this purpose. Abuse of these standards may result in the instrument or appliance being stored until it can be removed from the campus. Radios, stereos or other electronic equipment should not be placed in or near windows, as the noise may distract others whose windows may be open.

Beyond this, residence hall associations may establish specific quiet hours within their respective halls.
